Make Your Leadership Character Mood Board

- Choose cut outs, words, titles, images etc.
- Use pens to write words
- If you something in your magazine that you think applies to someone else in the room, share the cut out with them
- Help others understand and develop their own leadership character mood board
- Present your mood board, give reasons, logics and examples
- Give feedback to others on their mood boards (if something you think doesn't resonate with their leadership character)

A test of how you envision yourself as a leader and what others think of you in contrast.
